

Book Signing

at Northwest Library
Saturday, December 3rd
11:00 am - 2:00 pm

Henry Duggan

Historical fiction novel of the actual 1820 fire of unknown origin that burned almost half the city. It follows the young arson investigator as he faces many dangerous challenges trying to solve the mystery. In the midst, he falls in love with a beautiful young lady that captures his heart.

Jay Beck

It's based on Beck's experiences when he was deputy campaign manager in the unpredictable and dramatic 1992 Ross Perot presidential campaign, the most successful third-party presidential campaign ever. It also looks at the very real crisis, largely ignored, of our growing national debt. It is the key issue of our times.

Jack & Sue Talley

- Combat, resilience, and the legacy of WW II through the eyes and voices of the paratroopers, wives and families of the 508th PIR.
(from 900 letters sent home).

Michael Aye

The book is set on the eve of England's war with France during the 1790's. It's a coming-of-age story when a young man finds things are not always as cut and dried as one would think. It's a story of love, loyalty and packed full of danger and excitement.

Authors also will have other published books available.